

Legal Resources for Housing Court

City Wide Task Force on Housing

(212) 982-5512

They sit in Housing Court throughout each borough They can provide help with negotiating housing court process.

The Civil Court information Line

(212) 791-6000

This has recorded information about the housing court process in English and in Spanish.

The Housing Court Counselor (Pro Se Attorney)

This service is available in each housing court to assist people without attorneys. There has been terrific client feed back as to how helpful and accessible these attorneys are. A client needs to go to the housing court and seek out the pro se attorney's office; they are usually next to city wide task force on housing. You have to walk in to my knowledge there is no way to contact them via the phone.

The West Side SRO Law Project

(212) 799-9638

This is a privately funded non-profit that provides assistant for those living in SRO.

This office provided assistance for those people living in SRO's and need help navigating the housing court process.

Eviction Intervention Services

(212) 308-2210, fax (212) 888-7140

Email: eisny@aol.com

This agency provides lots of services to the community ranging from tenant seminars, legal aid, maintenance and repairs issues with landlords, tax clinics and other community referrals.

Legal Aid Society

(212) 577-3300

Legal Services of New York City

(212) 431-7200

The Bar Association of the City of New York

(212) 626-7373

Legal website www.lawhelp.org

The client can access any type of help with legal issues. This will provide a list by zip code of agencies and community resources that might be useful.