The Actors Fund is a national human services organization that helps everyone—performers and those behind the scenes—who works in performing arts and entertainment, helping nearly 12,000 people directly each year, and hundreds of thousands online. Serving professionals in film, theatre, television, music, opera, radio and dance, The Fund's programs include social services and emergency assistance, health care and insurance, housing, and employment and training services. With offices in New York, Los Angeles and Chicago, The Actors Fund has—for over 125 years—been a safety net for those in need, crisis or transition.

The Actors Fund, for everyone in entertainment.

Dear Friends, Supporters, and Everyone Who Cares About The Fund

Dear Friends,

We are pleased to present The Actors Fund's 2009 Annual Report.

The Fund plays a significant role in our community and its essential services and programs are more important than ever before. In 2009, 11,844 entertainment/performing arts professionals received services, an increase of nearly 30% since 2007, with expenses of $27.6 million against income of $27.3 million.

Performing arts and entertainment professionals are among the most vulnerable populations during difficult economic periods. The truth is, even during times of economic strength, most entertainment professionals still earn modest and inconsistent incomes, making it challenging to afford housing, health care and other basic living necessities.

To help meet this consistently growing need, The Fund launched a Special Campaign in 2009, with the goal of Responding to Essential and Evolving Needs. With the leadership of co-chairs Annette Bening, Kevin McCollum and Jonathan Tisch, and essential support from The Fund's union and guild partners as well as foundation, institutional and individual supporters, $10.1 million was raised, ensuring that The Fund will remain a vital source of help for all entertainment and performing arts professionals during times of need, crisis and transition.

The Fund takes great care in the stewardship of our financial resources. In recognition of this, Charity Navigator, the nation's premier rating service of non-profits, has bestowed its Four Star rating to The Actors Fund.

In addition to The Fund's core social, health and employment/training services, progress continues to be made around the basic need for affordable and supportive housing in our community. Through the Actors Fund Housing Development Corporation, we are looking to the future and actively seeking to develop housing opportunities for artists throughout the country.

We send very special thanks to our committed Board of Trustees, our talented and exceptional staff and our generous, indispensable major donors. In particular, we salute the continued leadership and support of Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

Finally, we thank you for playing a vital role in our commitment to help everyone in entertainment.

Sincerely,

Programs and Services

Delivered by The Actors Fund in 2009

Mission Statement:

The Actors Fund is a nationwide human services organization that helps all professionals in performing arts and entertainment. The Fund is a safety net, providing programs and services for those who are in need, crisis or transition.

{Highlights}

The Actors Fund continues to focus our resources, skills and efforts on providing essential care to everyone who works in performing arts and entertainment.

In 2009, the total number of people helped increased by 8% to 11,844, representing 47 states and responding to the critical and evolving needs of our community.

Divided by our main program areas, this support included:

- 4,257 received Social Services and Emergency Financial Assistance;
$2,501,423 in financial assistance was granted to 1,708 people
- 4,611 utilized Health Services
- 3,524 participated in our employment and training program,
The Actors Fund Work Program
- 305 in our youth program, Looking Ahead, for performers ages 9 to 18
- 587 living in our Senior, Affordable and Special Needs Housing

Please note an individual may be receiving multiple services, so the total number of services, contacts or types of treatment may be more than number of individuals who had contact with The Actors Fund.

The Actors Fund's Strategic Direction 2008–2011

Our Strategic Direction includes:

- Continue, develop and expand programs and services that address the human service needs of the performing arts and entertainment community throughout the country.
- Maintain and develop housing that meets the needs of the performing arts and entertainment community.
- Act as a voice for the human service concerns affecting our constituents through an advocacy agenda targeting critical needs and funding through all levels of government and coordinating industry support.
- Deepen our ties with the Entertainment Industry Unions to expand membership awareness, program utilization, support and advocacy.
- Further establish, in all our constituencies, an understanding of The Actors Fund's mission, goals and programming.
- Strengthen our financial base, human resources and support systems to ensure that high-quality services can continue to be provided.
- Develop volunteer leadership to maximize support, access and participation.

Providing performing arts and entertainment professionals with affordable, supportive and senior housing has been an activity of The Actors Fund for more than 128 years, earning The Fund recognition for its expertise in artist housing development and management.

The Actors Fund Housing Development Corporation (AFHDC) was established in 2009 to build upon and expand the work of The Actors Fund by proactively responding to the current and compelling need of the performing arts community for affordable housing.

The Schermerhorn, Downtown Brooklyn

Organized as an affiliate of The Fund, the AFHDC is charged to develop high quality affordable, supportive and senior housing for the performing arts community in major urban arts centers. The AFHDC began this important work by evaluating the development potential of projects in downtown Los Angeles and Newark, New Jersey that include affordable housing for creative professionals, along with rehearsal and performance spaces.

Plans for the future include evaluating opportunities in New York City, Chicago, and Las Vegas.

The Actors Fund's Special Events and Performances are an essential part of our fundraising, ensuring that The Fund is there to help everyone in entertainment. The donation of time and talent by so many, allows not only for the maximum revenue necessary to fuel programs and services to performing arts and entertainment professionals in need, crisis or transition, but also provides for unique and memorable evenings for theatre lovers across the country. And Special Performances—(and added performance of many Broadway and touring shows)—continue the tradition that began in 1927!

Fundraising

The work of The Actors Fund through our two dozen programs and services as well as special response and emergency assistance is only possible through the support of thousands of individuals plus dozens of foundations, corporations, government agencies and the entertainment unions and guilds who represent so many of the people it is our privilege to serve. The Fund gives our great thanks and acknowledgement to those who continue to provide this vital lifeline given the realities of the economy; they demonstrate the true meaning of philanthropy and giving back.

In 2009 individual donations and planned gifts totaled $4,698,582. Institutional grants totaled $5,573,655, of which Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS (our largest supporter) donated a total of $3,450,000. Special events and benefit performances totaled $1,603,716.

Everyone associated with The Actors Fund is honored to give our thanks to our generous donors. Please consider adding your support to this stellar honor roll of supporters. For more information call 800.221.7303 or visit www.actorsfund.org.

The Actors Fund is proud of its top rating, Four Stars, from Charity Navigator, the largest and most utilized evaluator of charities in the US, objectively assessing the health of over 5,000 organizations. As Charity Navigator carefully examines tens of thousands of financial documents from non-profit organizations, receiving this rating is a special acknowledgement of The Actors Fund's commitment to careful growth and stewardship of our financial resources.

Responding to Essential & Evolving Needs

Professionals in performing arts and entertainment are among the most vulnerable to the tough times facing our country. The nature of their work often precludes them from obtaining health insurance, planning for retirement or having a cushion for unexpected situations and circumstances.

In 2009, The Fund launched a Special Campaign to build financial resources to meet the ever-increasing demand for our services to prepare for future essential needs.

Proceeds from the Campaign will help us:

1. Strengthen our ability to respond quickly to evolving social and emergency financial needs
2. Increase access to health care and insurance services
3. Offer more affordable, supportive and senior housing opportunities
4. Expand employment and training opportunities

in honor of..

A terrific way to recognize those who make a difference—and those to be remembered—is through “In honor of...” and “In memory of...” gifts. We are proud to celebrate both the individuals named and those who choose to recognize them through a special gift to The Actors Fund.

Lynn Redgrave {1943–2010}

The Actors Fund mourns the loss of our beloved friend and colleague Lynn Redgrave. Lynn was a staunch and gracious supporter of The Actors Fund as well as an advocate for everyone dedicated to performing arts and entertainment. Her illustrious career included unforgettable performances in theatre, film and television.

After training at London's Central School, Lynn made her professional debut in a 1962 production of A Midsummer Night's Dream at the Royal Court Theatre. Following a tour of Billy Liar and rep in Dundee, she made her West End debut at the Haymarket, in N.C. Hunter's The Tulip Tree with Celia Johnson and John Clements.

Then came an invitation to join The National Theatre for its inaugural season at the Old Vic, and with it the opportunity to work with such directors as Gaskill, Dexter, Olivier, Zeffirelli and Coward in roles such as Rose in The Recruiting Officer, Barblin in Andorra, Jackie in Hay Fever, Katrin in Mother

Courage, Miss Prue in Love for Love, and Margaret in Much Ado About Nothing which kept her busy for the next three years.

During that time she appeared in films such as Tom Jones, Girl with Green Eyes and The Deadly Affair. Her big chance came in 1966 with the title role in Georgy Girl, which earned her the New York Film Critics Award, the Golden Globe® and an Oscar® nomination.

In 1967 she made her Broadway debut in Black Comedy with Michael Crawford and Geraldine Page. London appearances included Michael Frayn's The Two of Us with Richard Briers at the Garrick, David Hare's Slag at the Royal Court, and Born Yesterday, directed by Tom Stoppard at Greenwich.

In 1974, she returned to Broadway in My Fat Friend. There soon followed Knock Knock with Charles Durning, Mrs. Warren's Profession (for a Tony nomination) with Ruth Gordon, and Saint Joan. Then in the 1985/86 season she appeared with Rex Harrison, Claudette Colbert, and Jeremy Brett in Aren't We All? and with Mary Tyler Moore in A. R. Gurney's Sweet Sue. Outside New York, she was in Misalliance in Chicago with Irene Worth, (earning the Sarah Siddons and Joseph Jefferson awards),

Twelfth Night at the American Shakespeare Festival, California Suite, The King and I, Hellzapoppin', Les Dames du Jeudi, Les Liaisons Dangereuses, The Cherry Orchard and in the early winter of 1991 starred with Stewart Granger and Ricardo Montalban in a Hollywood production of Don Juan in Hell.

With her sister Vanessa as Olga, she returned to the London stage playing Masha in Three Sisters in 1991 at the Queen's Theatre, London, and later played the title role in a television production of Whatever Happened to Baby Jane, again with Vanessa. Highlights of her early movie career also include The National Health, Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Sex, The Happy Hooker and Getting It Right. For American television she was seen in the series Teachers Only, House Calls, Centennial and Chicken Soup, while for the BBC she starred in The Faint-Hearted Feminist,

Lynn served on the Board of Trustees of The Actors Fund since 1992 and as a Vice Chair since 2006. She was deeply committed to The Fund in a very personal way, walking with us every year as Captain of The Actors Fund's EIF Revlon Run/Walk team to raise awareness about women's cancers, helping develop "In the Spotlight," our major gifts program, donating her time and talent to Auction of 1,000 Stars by teaching private Shakespeare lessons to many lucky donors and performing in and attending many Special Performances. Lynn was truly one of the warmest and most active supporters of this organization.

As an actress and a writer, she took our breath away. As a Trustee, she inspired us to do our best. As a human being, she taught us to live with humor and grace. She will be sorely missed.

A Woman Alone, Death of a Son, Calling the Shots and Fighting Back. She played Broadway in Moon Over Buffalo (1996) with co-star Robert Goulet, and starred in the world premiere of Tennessee Williams' The Notebook of Trigorin, based on Chekhov's The Seagull.

Her film career was revitalized in the 1990s and 2000s by such films as Bill Condon's Gods and Monsters (1998, Golden Globe winner), Scott Hicks' 1996 Shine, P.J. Hogan's Peter Pan, Bill Condon's Kinsey, and James Ivory's The White Countess.

Edwin Forrest Society

The Actors Fund established the Edwin Forrest Society to give special recognition to those selfless individuals who have made provisions for estate gifts to The Fund. The gift can be made through a will, a trust, an insurance policy, a retirement plan or other gifts and membership is granted to those who pledge that they have set aside an estate gift so thousands of performing arts and entertainment professionals can rely upon The Actors Fund in the years to come.
